Koinonia {coy NO nyah}

communion, joint participation; to share which one has in anything, participation, a gift jointly contributed, a collection, a contribution, etc.

"They devoted themselves to the apostles' teachings and to the communion, to the breaking of bread and to prayer...All the believers were together and had everything in common. selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as they had need...they broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favour of all the people."

Acts 2:42-47

Romans 12:6-8

We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophesy in accordance with your faith; if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently; if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully.
