

Matthew 7:15-23

Matthew 7:15-23

15 “Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves.

16 By their fruit you will recognize them. Do people pick grapes from thorn-bushes, or figs from thistles?

17 Likewise, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit.

Matthew 7:15-23

18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit.

19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

20 Thus, by their fruit you will recognize them.

Matthew 7:15-23

21 Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me on that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name and in your name drive out demons and in your name perform many miracles?

23 Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'

A person in silhouette stands in a narrow beam of warm, golden light that illuminates the scene from above. The person is positioned between the letters 'L' and 'J' of the word 'ELIJAH', which is rendered in large, bold, gold-colored capital letters. The background is a solid, deep black, creating a high-contrast, dramatic effect. The light source is positioned directly above the person, casting a long, soft shadow and highlighting the contours of the letters and the figure.

A pair of hands, with fingers interlaced, holds a bunch of dark, ripe grapes. The hands are positioned at the bottom of the frame, with the fingers pointing towards the center. The grapes are dark purple and hang from a vine. The background is filled with green grape leaves, some of which are slightly yellowed, suggesting autumn. The overall scene is a close-up, focusing on the hands and the grapes.
