Ephesians 3: 20

Now all glory to God, who is able,
through his mighty power at work within us,
to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think.

After the servant had done this, he reported,
'There is still room for more.'

After the servant had done this, he reported,
'There is still room for more.'

So his master said,
'Go out into the country lanes and behind the hedges and urge anyone you find to come,
so that the house will be full.'

Philippians 3:

12 I don't mean to say that I have already achieved these things or that I have already reached perfection. But I press on to possess that perfection for which Christ Jesus first possessed me.

13 No, dear brothers and sisters, I have not achieved it, but I focus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead,

14 I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us.

Ephesians 4: 15 - 16

Instead, we will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head of his body, the church.

He makes the whole body fit together perfectly. As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love.

Ephesians 4: 15 - 16

Instead, we will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head of his body, the church.

He makes the whole body fit together perfectly.

As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love.

Ephesians 4: 15 - 16

Instead, we will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head of his body, the church.

He makes the whole body fit together perfectly.

As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love.

Then Jesus asked them, "But who do you say I am?"

Simon Peter answered,

"You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

Jesus replied, "You are blessed...because my Father in heaven has revealed this to you.

You did not learn this from any human being.

Now I say to you that you are Peter (which means 'rock'), and upon this rock I will build my church, and all the powers of hell will not conquer it.

After Jesus had finished speaking,
the crowds were amazed at his teaching,
for he taught as one who had real authority
– quite unlike the teachers of religious law.’

Matt 7: 28

'People don't care how much you know,
until they know how much you care.'

1 John 4: 11 – 12

Dear friends, since God loved us that much, we surely ought to love each other. No one has ever seen God. But if we love each other, God lives in us, and his love is brought to full expression in us.
