LUKE

Join Luke's journey seeing Jesus life through the author's eyes.

A person wearing a blue hooded sweatshirt and an orange backpack is seen from behind, looking out over a body of water. In the background, there is a large, rugged mountain with some greenery. The sky is overcast.

TO JERUSALEM

A first-person perspective from the driver's seat of a car. The driver's hand is on the steering wheel, wearing a watch. A smartphone is mounted on the dashboard, displaying a navigation app with a blue line on a map. The car is on a long, straight, two-lane road that stretches towards a bright sunset on the horizon. The sun is low in the sky, creating a strong lens flare and illuminating the road and surrounding trees. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and blue.

We are citizens of heaven...

Philippians 3:20

Luke 12: 13

Then someone called from the crowd,
“Teacher, please tell my brother to divide
our father’s estate with me.”

Luke 12: 13 - 14

Then someone called from the crowd,
“Teacher, please tell my brother to divide
our father’s estate with me.”

Jesus replied, “Friend, who made me a judge over you to decide such things as that?”

“Beware! Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own.”

"A rich man had a fertile farm that produced fine crops. He said to himself,
'What should I do?
I don't have room for all my crops.'

Then he said, 'I know! I'll tear down my barns and build bigger ones. Then I'll have room enough to store all my wheat and other goods. And I'll sit back and say to myself, "My friend, you have enough stored away for years to come. Now take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry!"'

"Yes, a person is a fool to store up earthly wealth but not have a rich relationship with God."

INCLUDED

Now you are my friends, since I have told you everything the Father told me.

You didn't choose me. I chose you.

I appointed you to go and produce lasting fruit, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask for, using my name.

Ephesians 3: 18b - 20

...may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep his love is. May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully.

Then you will be made complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God.

Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think.

Galatians 3: 26 - 28

For you are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus. And all who have been united with Christ in baptism have put on Christ, like putting on new clothes.

There is no longer Jew or Gentile, slave or free, male and female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus.

1 Corinthians 13:1 - 7

If I could speak all the languages of earth and of angels, but didn't love others, I would only be a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. If I had the gift of prophecy, and if I understood all of God's secret plans and possessed all knowledge, and if I had such faith that I could move mountains, but didn't love others, I would be nothing. If I gave everything I have to the poor and even sacrificed my body, I could boast about it; but if I didn't love others, I would have gained nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:1 - 7

Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way.

It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged.

It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out.

Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance.

1 John 4: 9 -10, 19,
God showed how much he loved us by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him.

1 John 4: 9 -10, 19,

This is real love—not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins.

1 John 4: 9 -10, 19,
We love each other because he loved us first.
