LUKE?

Neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and

Luke 1: 1 - 4

Many people have set out to write accounts about the events that have been fulfilled among us. They used the eyewitness reports circulating among us from the early disciples. Having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I also have decided to write an accurate account for you, most honorable Theophilus, so you can be certain of the truth of everything you were taught.

Luke 3: 1 - 2

It was now the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius, the Roman emperor. Pontius Pilate was governor over Judea; Herod Antipas was ruler over Galilee; his brother Philip was ruler over Iturea and Traconitis; Lysanias was ruler over Abilene. Annas and Caiaphas were the high priests.

At this time a message from God came to John son of Zechariah, who was living in the wilderness.

Bible Criticism & Ancient Greek.

'A writer who relates his story to the wider context of world history is courting trouble if he is not careful; he affords his critical readers so many opportunities for testing his accuracy. Luke takes this risk, and stands the test admirably.'

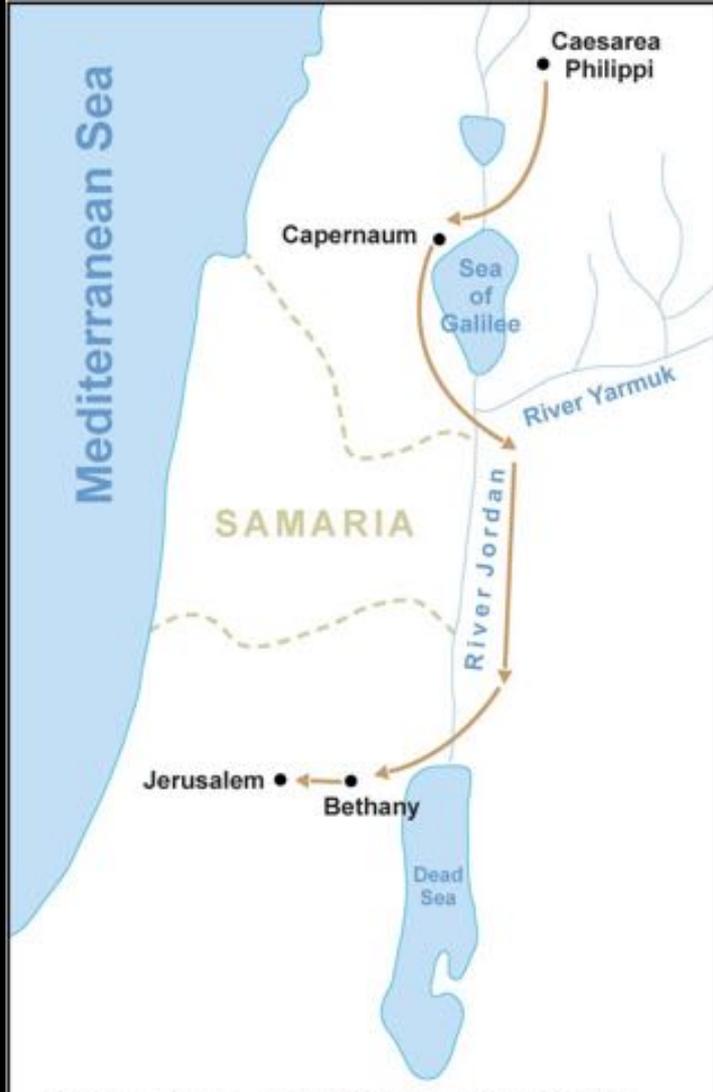

The image features the word "UNIVERSAL" in a large, bold, 3D metallic font. The letters are white with a blue and gold gradient and a beveled, embossed appearance. The text is centered horizontally and partially overlaps a glowing blue Earth seen from space. The Earth shows the Americas and is set against a dark blue starry background with a bright light source on the left horizon.

Luke 9: 51 - 52

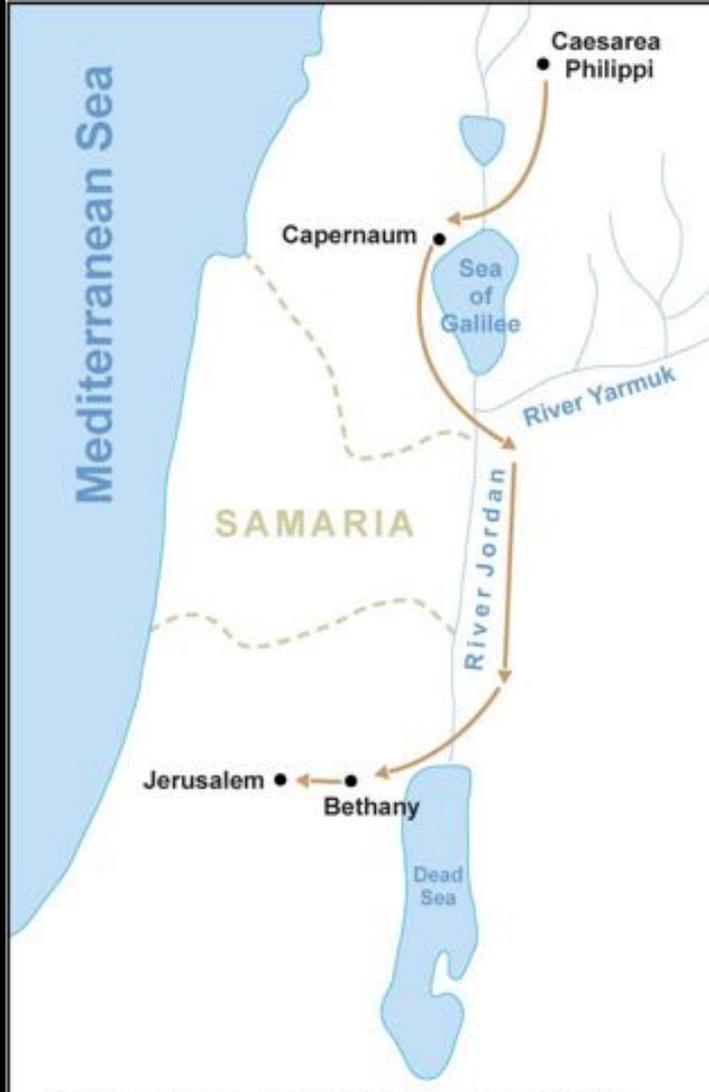

As the time drew near for him to ascend to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem. He sent messengers ahead to a Samaritan village to prepare for his arrival.

Luke 9: 53 - 54

But the people of the village did not welcome Jesus because he was on his way to Jerusalem.

When James and John saw this, they said to Jesus, “Lord, should we call down fire from heaven to burn them up?”

Luke 9: 55 - 56

But Jesus turned and rebuked them. And he said, “You don’t realize what your hearts are like. For the Son of Man has not come to destroy people’s lives, but to save them.”

So they went on to another village.

Philip, for example, went to the city of Samaria and told the people there about the Messiah. Crowds listened intently to Philip because they were eager to hear his message and see the miraculous signs he did. ...So there was great joy in that city.

A blurred background image showing two people, likely a man and a woman, looking at a document together. The man is on the left, wearing a red and black plaid shirt. The woman is on the right, with long blonde hair, wearing a blue and white plaid shirt. They are both looking down at a white document held between them. The background is out of focus, showing green foliage.

Discipleship

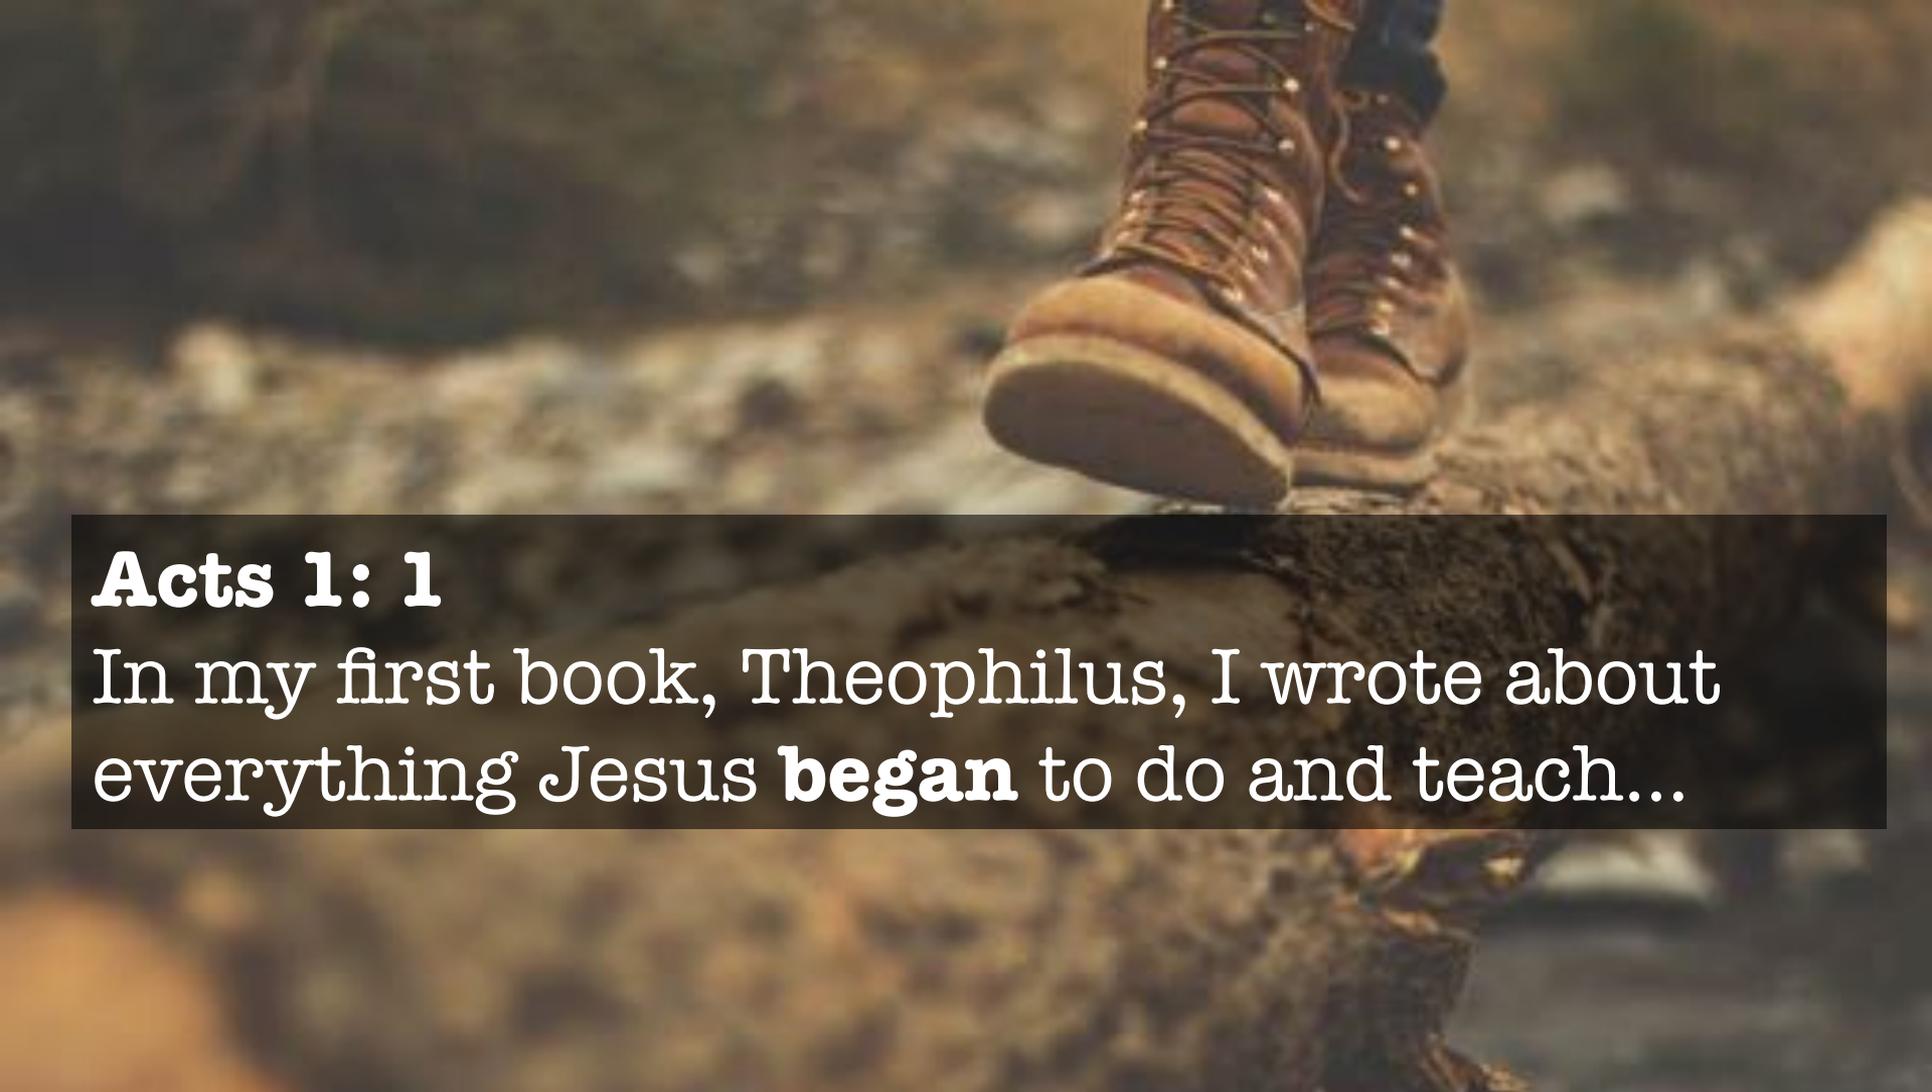

16.7.97. 10th day of my retreat at Llandudno
Was thinking about the consequences of my retreat with regard to the spiritual life put into the children's lives - One child complained about her eye & another said to her 'She can pray about it can't she Mrs H. G.?' AV Maryline Bethan & friend were making up songs with dance about Jesus to tune of Frère Jacques 'I love Jesus' 'Jesus loves me'. These things came 'out of the blue'
God saying - 'I'm the one who works
in their lives!'
