

The next day there was a wedding celebration in the village of Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, and Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the celebration.

The wine supply ran out during the festivities, so Jesus' mother told him, "They have no more wine."

PERMISSION

“They have no more wine.”

“They have no more wine.”

“It’s the bins tonight.”

“They have no more wine.”

“The lounge needs hoovering”

“Woman,
what concern is that
to you and to me?
My hour has not yet
come.”

When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her,
he said to his mother, “Woman, here is your son.”

Then he said to the disciple, “Here is your mother.”
And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

John 19: 26 -27

“Woman,
what concern is that
to you and to me?
My hour has not yet
come.”

PERMISSION

Jesus said, “Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:28

Standing nearby were six stone water jars, used for Jewish ceremonial washing. Each could hold twenty to thirty gallons.

Jesus told the servants, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them up to the brim.

PROCESS

One day Jesus told his disciples a story to show that they should always pray and never give up.

Luke 18.1

TRUST

As humans, we are biologically wired to do what is comfortable.

But if you look at the times when justice prevailed and liberation came, it only came when people were willing to do uncomfortable things.

It's hard, but you have to position yourself in uncomfortable places and be a witness.

MISSION to WALES

Wed 27 June - Sun 1 July

FREE

When the master of ceremonies tasted the water that was now wine, not knowing where it had come from (though, of course, the servants knew), he called the bridegroom over.

“A host always serves the best wine first,” he said. “Then, when everyone has had a lot to drink, he brings out the less expensive wine. But you have kept the best until now!”

James 5: 13-15

Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray.

Is anyone happy? Let them sing songs of praise.

Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord.

And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise them up.

If they have sinned, they will be forgiven.

Ephesians 8 - 10

God saved you by his grace when you believed. And you can't take credit for this; it is a gift from God.

Salvation is not a reward for the good things we have done, so none of us can boast about it.

For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.

This miraculous sign at Cana in Galilee was the first time Jesus revealed his glory. And his disciples believed in him. After the wedding he went to Capernaum for a few days with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples.

Philippians 4: 6 -7s

Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.
