Everything can be taken from a person but one thing: the last of the human freedoms, to choose our attitude to what happens to us

You're blessed when you're at the end of your rope. With less of you there is more of God and his rule. You're blessed when you feel you've lost what is most dear to you. Only then can you be embraced by the One most dear to you.
